Alabama
The state penal code of Alabama uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Alaska
The state penal code of Alaska uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Arizona
The state penal code of Arizona refers to Peace Officer as being in the capacity of law enforcement with certain arrest restrictions.

Arkansas
The state penal code of Arkansas only refers to the term Peace Officer when referencing the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure; not in their own code.

California
The state penal code of California uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Colorado
The state penal code of Colorado uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Connecticut
The state penal code of Connecticut uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Delaware
The state penal code of Delaware refers to Peace Officer as any public officer authorized by law to make arrests in a criminal case

District of Columbia
The state penal code of the District of Columbia does not refer to Peace Officer.

Florida
The state penal code of Florida uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Georgia
The state penal code of Georgia uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Hawaii
The state penal code of Hawaii uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

© 2021 Police2Peace All rights reserved.

Idaho
The state penal code of Idaho uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Illinois
The state penal code of Illinois uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Indiana
The state penal code of Indiana does not refer to Peace Officer.

Iowa
The state penal code of Iowa uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Kansas
The state penal code of Kansas uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Kentucky
The state penal code of Kentucky refers to Peace Officer as being in the capacity of law enforcement with certain arrest restrictions.

Louisiana
The state penal code of Louisiana uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Maine
The state penal code of Maine does not refer to Peace Officer.

Maryland
The state penal code of Maryland does not refer to Peace Officer.

Massachusetts
The state penal code of Massachusetts does not refer to Peace Officer.

Michigan
The state penal code of Michigan uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Minnesota
The state penal code of Minnesota uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Mississippi

© 2021 Police2Peace All rights reserved.

The state penal code of Mississippi only uses the term Peace Officer when referring to National Guard serving as peace officers when ordered to state emergency duty under authority vested in the Governor by the Constitution and laws of the state.

Missouri
The state penal code of Missouri uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Montana
The state penal code of Montana uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Nebraska
The state penal code of Nebraska uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Nevada
The state penal code of Nevada uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

New Hampshire
The state penal code of New Hampshire uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

New Jersey
The state penal code of New Jersey does not refer to Peace Officer.

New Mexico
The state penal code of New Mexico uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

New York
The state penal code of New York uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

North Carolina
The state penal code of North Carolina does not refer to Peace Officer.

North Dakota
The state penal code of North Dakota uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Ohio
The state penal code of Ohio uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Oklahoma

© 2021 Police2Peace All rights reserved.

The state penal code of Oklahoma uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Oregon
The state penal code of Oregon uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Pennsylvania
The state penal code of Pennsylvania uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Rhode Island
The state penal code of Rhode Island uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

South Carolina
The state penal code of South Carolina does not refer to Peace Officer.

South Dakota
The state penal code of South Dakota uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Tennessee
The state penal code of Tennessee uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Texas
The state penal code of Texas uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Utah
The state penal code of Utah uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Vermont
The state penal code of Vermont uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Virginia
The state penal code of Virginia does not refer to Peace Officer.

Washington
The state penal code of Washington uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

West Virginia
The state penal code of West Virginia does not refer to Peace Officer.

© 2021 Police2Peace All rights reserved.

Wisconsin
The state penal code of Wisconsin uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

Wyoming
The state penal code of Wyoming uses only the term Peace Officer when referring to police officers.

© 2021 Police2Peace All rights reserved.